Fashion has combined with economy in this unusual grouping of coats of soft, warm Winter materials, in shades: Browns, marmons, Navy and black.

Youthfully slim and straight of line and embodying each frank fashion whim, you will find in them the ultra expression of the mode.

They are fur collared with large collars of wolf, enveloping collars of raccoon, or deep collars and cuffs of caracul. All are beautifully lined. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

The smart serviceability that accompanies a top coat and makes of it a garment of permanence rather than of the moment is apparent in not only the fabrics but the perfect tailoring of these garments.

The materials include: Flecked Fleece, Two-toned Herringbone patterns, Overplaid designs and checked woolen fabrics.

They are distinguished by effective placing of pockets which may be either flap, patch, slit or muff. And the coats themselves are belted, flared, pleated or Norfolk models. Silk lined. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

The smart chic that is Paris only is adapted cleverly to these exquisite frocks. Their every line is youth and newness itself.

They follow expertly the late importations by the swirl of their circular panels, by their drapes, and by their restrained use of Paisley silks or metallic lace Berthas.

Each highly favored silhouette for youth has its smart exponent in this special group of delightful Poiret Twill frocks at 25.00

There is the quaint basque, the coat frock and the straight line model. Each is trimmed in accord for its line—with embroidered duvetyne, tailored braid or colorful embroideries.

Sizes 14 to 20 years.

The coat frocks that Fashion has marked for her own this season come in two charming versions—so charming, in fact, it is difficult to decide which is more attractive. One takes the surplice front closing of Madeleine & Madeleine, and not content with fastening a metal buckle there, adds an elaborate motif of embroidery and ribbon. The other has revers down one side, faced with color, and marks the waistline with a buckle and long tassel. Another new note is sounded in a circular skirted affair with embroidery in Egyptian colors over the body. In navy, brown and black. Sizes 34 to 46.
